Today's Business Solutions Perseveres through Bearish Year and Rises 13 spots in HB 500

By Priscilla Luna

Houston, TX – June 2009 – Today's Business Solutions (TBS) has been selected by Hispanic Business Magazine as one of the largest Hispanic-owned companies in the United States.

Amid such factors as unfavorable market conditions, shortages of credit and competition in a buyer's market, TBS not only endured but advanced for 2009. 2008 was the first year that TBS was ranked in the HB 500 at number 441 and for 2009 they have advanced to number 428.

Although many companies are feeling the sting of this economic calamity, the overall revenues of the nation's 500 leading Hispanic-owned firms actually went up, according to the 27th annual survey by HispanTelligence, the research arm of HispanicBusiness Magazine.

"I am proud to celebrate another year of success and know that it is no small feat that we expanded during this economic downturn," said Marketing Administrator of Today's Business Solutions Priscilla Luna. "It is a testament to our employees and illustrates our innovative approach in this industry has proven successful."

The 30th Anniversary-June 2009 edition of Hispanic Business magazine spotlights the annual Hispanic Business 500. For almost three decades, the HB 500 has been regarded as a barometer of the U.S. Hispanic economy. The 500 largest U.S. Hispanic-owned companies in the nation, as determined by Hispanic Business magazine, reported revenues of $36.15 billion this year, a 0.1 increase compared to the year before.
